Dear Comrade,

COM. GEETHA V N

We bid an emotional farewell to our beloved Comrade Geetha V N, who retired from the Bank and stepped down from her role as Organising Secretary of SBSU (KC), Kozhikode Sub Office on 31st May 2025. Her journey in both the Bank and the Union is an example of dedication, courage, and sincere service.

Com. Geetha was born on 1st July, 1965 at Nedumbally Mana, Sreekrishnapuram, in Palakkad district. She completed her school education in her hometown and did her college studies at Government Victoria College, Chittoor, where she earned a Mathematics degree.

She joined the erstwhile State Bank of Travancore on 28th July, 1989 at the Kozhikode Zonal Office. Over the years, she worked at Palayam, Meenchandha, and later at Kozhikode PB Branch after the merger with SBI. In 2019, she became Chief Associate and was in charge of cash operations at Puthiyara Branch.

In 2022, when the post of Organising Secretary became vacant, Com. Geetha stepped in without hesitation and took up the responsibility for our Kozhikode Sub Office. From the beginning, she showed great leadership, especially in bringing together lady comrades. She helped many come forward and become active in union activities. She worked closely with regional level Women's Sub Committees and attended every union programme with full commitment, even those outside Kerala. Her excellent organising skills were appreciated by everyone during the Silver Jubilee Celebrations of SBSU (KC) held at Kozhikode.

Com. Geetha is married to Shri T Narayanan Namboodhiri, a retired LIC employee and a trade union leader. They have two children. Their son Sreejith works at an IT company in Noida, and their daughter Anagha is working as a Probationary Officer at Federal Bank.

As she enters her retired life, we wish her peace, happiness, and more time with her family. Her leadership and support will always be remembered and missed. The example she set will continue to guide our union in the days to come.

Thank you, Comrade Geetha V N, for your selfless service and strong commitment to our members.

Yours Comradely
